SUBMISSIONS

All English submissions should be sent to Professor Sandra Wawrytko (email: wawrytko@sdsu.edu) with "Fu Essay Contest" as the subject line. All Chinese submissions should be sent to Professor Ann Pang-White (email: ann.pang-white@scranton.edu) with the same subject line in Chinese: 傅論文競賽. Decisions will be made by separate panels of scholars selected from the membership of the International Society for Chinese Philosophy. Previously published papers will not be considered. Submissions in English should not exceed 5,000 words; submission in Chinese should not exceed 7,000 words. DEADLINE: January 31, 2025.

JUDGING CRITERIA

The purpose of the contest is to encourage young scholars who show promise of making important contributions to the study and development of Chinese philosophy or Asian philosophy related to Chinese thought, and to fund senior scholars with financial limitations to present their work at ISCP conferences.

All essays submitted to the Charles Fu Essay Competition will be evaluated by a panel of highly qualified experts in Chinese philosophy. The evaluation will be based on the following equally weighted criteria, which align with Dr. Fu's priorities:

- 1. CREATIVITY: Original philosophical insights, including comparative analyses.
- 2. COHERENCE: A clear and well-organized presentation.
- 3. SCHOLARSHIP: Proficiency in engaging with primary texts and commentaries.

Each submission will receive a cumulative score based on these evaluations, and the essays with the highest scores in each category will be recognized with awards.
