Invitation

We invite you to participate in the 2nd Conference New Perspectives in Humanities and Social Sciences, which will take place on 30 and 31 January 2025 and is organised by the Faculty of Arts and the Faculty of Social Sciences of the University of Ljubljana. The doctoral conference brings together all faculties of the University of Ljubljana involved in the joint study programme in the humanities and social sciences (Faculty of Arts, Faculty of Social Sciences, Faculty of Social Work, Faculty of Theology, Academy of Fine Arts and Design, Academy of Music, Academy of Theatre, Radio, Film and Television) and is aimed at doctoral students of all years, as well as those who have recently obtained their doctorate. The conference offers the opportunity to present the results of completed or ongoing work, with an emphasis on original scientific contributions. The accompanying programme will be announced on the website at a later date.

Thematic areas

In a rapidly changing world, the humanities and social sciences play a key role in gaining deep insights into the complexity of society. This enables us not only to understand it, but also to improve society itself. The aim of this year's conference New Perspectives in Humanities and Social Sciences is to establish an interdisciplinary dialogue that addresses the areas of society that significantly influence and shape it, while pointing to the current problems we face collectively and globally. We accept submissions that fit into the following areas:

- 1. Global challenges of contemporary society (political institutions and processes, geopolitical issues, environment and climate change, social movements, cultural and social change, (un)resolved conflicts of the past, migration, religion)
- 2. Media culture and social communication (media, web and social media, artificial intelligence)
- 3. Criticism of contemporary science with a view to the future
- 4. Innovation in contemporary art and social criticism (in literature, visual arts, theatre, music, film, dance and design)
- 5. Language as a reflection of social change
- 6. Contemporary challenges in teaching and social work
