| 19.00-20.00 | Posters |
| 20.00 | Reception at Foersterjev Garden |

| Friday, 28 June – THEMATIC SESSION | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| 08.30-09.00 | Registration |
| Session 1 | Chair: Nikos Koutsoukos |
| 09.00-10.00 | Keynote lecture: Capturing generalizations about exponence Olivier Bonami (Université Paris Diderot) |
| 10.00-10.30 | Enrique Palancar (CNRS) & Timothy Feist (University of Surrey) Inflectional complexity as a hindrance to analogy: The case of stem allomorphy in Chichimec (Oto-Manguean, Mexico) |
| 10.30-11.00 | Elise Michon (SYSTRAN) & Mine Nakipoğlu (Boğaziçi University) Rule-based vs. similarity-based generalization: An experimental study on the Turkish Aorist |
| 11.00-11.30 | Coffee Break |
| Session 2 | Chair: Boban Arsenijević |
| 11.30-12.00 | Andrew Spencer (University of Essex) Uninflected and uninflectable lexemes: Implications for paradigm structure |

MMM12 Program

Ljubljana (Slovenia), 27-30 June 2019

|------------------|---|
| 12.00-12.30 | Alexandra Fiéis (Universidade Nova de Lisboa, Centro da Linguística da UNL - CLUNL) & Mikołaj Nkollo (Adam Mickiewicz University) Overabundant cells in European Portuguese clitic paradigm. An interface-based approach |
| 12.30-13.00 | Alexandra Soares Rodrigues (ESE- Instituto Politécnico de Bragança; CELGA-ILTEC - Universidade de Coimbra) & Pedro João Rodrigues (ESTiG; CeDRI - Instituto Politécnico de Bragança) Plasticity of morphological paradigms |
| 13.00-14.30 | Lunch |
| Session 3 | Chair: Susan Olsen |
| 14.30-15.00 | Alice Missud (Université Paris Nanterre) & Florence Villoing (Université Paris Nanterre & CNRS) Investigating analogy through a distributional analysis: the rivalry between French deverbal suffixation in -age and verb to noun conversion |
| 15.00-15.30 | Andrea Sims (The Ohio State University) & Dunstan Brown (University of York) Regulating competition between stems and suffixes: A declarative defaults-based solution for nominal stress assignment in Greek |
| 15.30-16.00 | Natalia Bobkova (Université de Toulouse II Jean Jaurès) & Fabio Montermini (Université de Toulouse II Jean Jaurès) Suffix rivalry in Russian: What low frequency words tell us |
| 16.00-17.00 | Poster Session (Group A) - Coffee Break |
| Session 4 | Chair: Olivier Bonami |
| 17.00-17.30 | Maria Bloch-Trojnar (The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin) In search of a model for the derivation of dispositional and potential adjectives based on participles in Irish |

| 18.00-18.30 | Don Daniels (University of Oregon) & Greville Corbett (University of Surrey) Repartitioning: A new inflectional phenomenon |
| 20:00 | Conference Dinner (Bistro Švicarija) |

MMM12 Program
Ljubljana (Slovenia), 27-30 June 2019

| Saturday, 29 June – FREE TOPIC SESSION | |
|--|---|
| Session 5 | Chair: Geert Booij |
| 09.00-10.00 | Keynote lecture: The interrelatedness of meaning in derivational patterns Susan Olsen (Humboldt University Berlin) |
| 10.00-10.30 | Sven Kotowski (Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf) The semantics of out-prefixation: To outrun does not necessarily compare two running-events |
| 10.30-11.00 | Angeliki Efthymiou (Democritus University of Thrace) How many factors influence the formation of parasynthetic verbs? The case of Modern Greek |
| 11.00-11.30 | Coffee Break |
| Session 6 | Chair: Christina Manouilidou |
| 11.30-12.00 | Simon David Stein (Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf) & Ingo Plag (Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf) Lexical storage and morphological segmentability in speech production: New evidence from English derivational affixes |
| 12.00-12.30 | Arne Lohmann (HHU Düsseldorf) No acoustic evidence for a category-specific metrical schema. An extended replication of Sereno & Jongman's (1995) reading study of noun-verb conversion homophones |
| 12.30-13.00 | Serena Dal Maso (Università di Verona), Sabrina Piccinin (Università di Verona) & Hélène Giraudo (Université Toulouse Jean Jaurès) Effects of formal complexity in morphological processing |
| 13.00-14.30 | Lunch |
| Session 7 | Chair: Franja Lipovšek |
| 14.30-15.00 | Matthew Baerman (Surrey Morphology Group) & Jeremy Pasquereau (Surrey Morphology Group) Extraparadigmatic inflection in Seri |
| 15.00-15.30 | Alec Kienzle (University of Toronto) Agents, paths, and states in the Hebrew middle templates |
| 15.30-16.00 | Hans-Olav Enger (University of Oslo) Loss of inflection in North Germanic adjectives – or is it? |
| 16.00-17.00 | Poster Session (Group B) - Coffee Break |
| Session 8 | Chair: Jenny Audring |
| 17.00-17:30 | Jan Radimsky (University of South Bohemia) A paradigmatic account of lexical innovation: The case of Romance N+N compounding |
| 17.30-18:00 | Katrin Hein (Institute for the German Language -IDS) Why do some lexemes combine more frequently than others? An empirical approach to productivity in German compound formation |
| 18.00-18:30 | Barbara Schlücker (Universität Leipzig) Close appositions as phrasal nouns |
| Closing remarks | |

MMM12 Program

Ljubljana (Slovenia), 27-30 June 2019

Sunday, 30 June – EXCURSION to Sečovelje and Piran

| POSTER SESSION – GROUP A |
| Sabine Arndt-Lappe & Sonia Ben Hedia, Stress in the family: Reconsidering stress preservation in English -ory adjectives |
| Alexandra Bagasheva (Sofia University), Lívia Körtvélyessy (Pavol Jozef Safarik University), Pavol Štekauer (Pavol Jozef Safarik University), Salvador Valera (University of Granada) & Jan Genci (Technical University in Kosice), Cross-linguistic research into derivational networks |
| Melanie Bell (Anglia Ruskin University), The non-human patient noun revisited |
| David Erschler (Ben Gurion University of the Negev), On multiple exponence and locality in morphology |
| Isa Hendrikx (Université catholique de Louvain), Intensifying compounds in the Diasystem of Belgian French-speaking learners of Dutch and English |
| Anna Jessen (University of Potsdam - SFB 1287), Lara Schwarz (The Pennsylvania State University) & Harald Clahsen (University of Potsdam - SFB 1287), Graded morphological generalization: A study of German inflection |
| Maria Silvia Micheli (Università di Milano-Bicocca) & Giorgio Francesco Arcodia (Università di Milano-Bicocca), Schemas and productivity in Construction Morphology |
| Frane Malenica (University of Zadar), Arguments and adjuncts in synthetic compounds: Evidence from English and Croatian |
| Fabio Montermini (CLLE-ERSS, CNRS & Université de Toulouse 2 Jean Jaurès) & Matteo Pellegrini (Università di Bergamo/Università di Pavia), A global holistic approach to word-formation patterns. Base-derivative formal interactions in Ancient Greek denominal verbs |
| Jessica Nieder (Heinrich-Heine University Düsseldorf), Ruben van de Vijver (Heinrich-Heine University Düsseldorf) & Holger Mitterer (University of Malta), Priming Maltese plural patterns: Effects of frequency and structure |
| Carina Pinto (IPL, CLUL) & Alina Villalva (UL, CLUL), The role of derivational suffixes in visual word recognition |
| João Verissimo (University of Potsdam), Dual-mechanism morphology in native speakers, analogy in late learners |
| POSTER SESSION – GROUP B |
| Marco Biasio (University of Padova), Affectedness and middle voice in Russian and Serbo-Croatian |
| Enrico Castro (Università degli Studi di Padova & Université de Lausanne), The Venetan conditional morphology: The imposing of a specific pattern |
| U. Marie Engemann (Heinrich Heine Universität Düsseldorf), Ingo Plag (Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf) & Julia Zimmermann (Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf), Morphological boundaries and stem duration in English: Replicating experimental results with corpus data |
| Kristel Van Goethem (F.R.S.-FNRS & Université catholique de Louvain), Nikos Koutsoukos (F.R.S.-FNRS & Université catholique de Louvain) & Virginie Houtart (Université catholique de Louvain), Denominal verb-formation in English, Dutch and German: A comparative corpus-based study |
| Antonio Machicao Y Priemer & Paola Fritz Huechante (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin), Reflexivizing Spanish Psych-verbs: Ambiguities across classes |
| M. Silvia Micheli (Università di Milano-Bicocca), The diachrony of Italian compounding from a constructionist perspective |
| Rafael Minussi (Universidade Federal de São Paulo) & Alina Villalva (Centro de Linguística da Universidade de Lisboa), Word formation, processing and lexical access. Blends and compounds in European and Brazilian Portuguese |
| Ali Al Moussaoui (University of Nova Gorica), The facilitatory effect of phonological priming on visual word recognition in Arabic: Speed and overlap positions |
| Marine Wauquier, Nabil Hathout & Cécile Fabre (CLLE & CNRS & Université Toulouse Jean Jaurès), Contributions of distributional semantics for the semantic study of French morphologically derived nouns |

MMM12 Program

Ljubljana (Slovenia), 27-30 June 2019

Fanni Patay, Péter Rebrus & Miklós Törkenczy (Eötvös Loránd University & Research Institute for Linguistics, Hungarian Academy of Sciences), Harmony by defectiveness and templatic suffixes

Tabea Reiner (Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich), Thoughts on feature intersection

POSTER SESSION – WORKSHOP

Jurica Polančec (University of Zagreb), Towards the history of some types of imperfectiva tantum in contemporary Croatian

Marko Simonović (University of Graz), Categories, radical cores and default stress: Slovenian nominalisations revisited

Georgia Roumpea, Maja Blesić, Dejan Georgiev & Christina Manouilidou (University of Ljubljana), Regular vs irregular morphology in Parkinson's and Alzheimer's disease: Evidence from Slovene

Gordana Hržica (University of Zagreb) & Tomislava Bošnjak Botica (Institute of Croatian Language and Linguistics), Generalizations in verb paradigms in Croatian typically developing children and a child with developmental language disorder

Andreja Zele & Mladen Uhlík (University of Ljubljana), Slovenian comitative constructions with dual personal pronouns (Midva s Špelo, Midve s Špelo)

Zrinka Kolaković (Universität Regensburg), Factors contributing to prefixation of biaspectual verbs in Croatian

Sandra Požar (Staroslavenski Institut), Problem of the Croatian Church Slavonic "complex" adjectival suffixes from diachronic perspective: Extended base, suffix or adjective as a whole?

Marta Petrak (University of Zagreb), Development of a productive morphological pattern on the basis of loan translation: Croatian adjectives formed with the prefix među-

Katarina Marjanovič & Davide Crepaldi (SISSA), Morphological priming of inflectional suffixes
